Write-in options on 2018 General Election ballot

The Durham County Board of Elections announces that the following persons under its jurisdiction have qualified as certified write-in candidates for the November 6, 2018 General Election:

Durham County Sheriff (in the order that they qualified):

Paul Joshua Martin

George Harvard Boykin

Under State law, there is a process to qualify as a write-in candidate through a petition process. In even-numbered year General Elections, a write-in option for a given contest will only be offered if at least one person has qualified as a write-in candidate.

For information regarding qualified write-in candidates under State jurisdiction, please contact the State Board of Elections & Ethics Enforcement.
